

The International Association of Teachers of the Kazakh Language (IATKL)

The International Association of Teachers of the Kazakh Language - IATKL (hereafter “the Association”) was organized by the decision of the International Symposium «Eternal Language of Eternal Nation» in honor of the 25th anniversary of Independence of the Republic of Kazakhstan and held at Nazarbayev University on November 24, 2016. The Association is a non-governmental, public organization. Full name in the Kazakh language - Қазақ тілі оқытушыларының халықаралық бірлестігі, abbreviated - ҚТОХБ; In Russian – Международное объединение преподавателей казахского языка, abbreviated – МОПКЯ, In English - International Association of Teachers of Kazakh Language - ICTKL.

The purpose of the Community is the improvement of the theoretical and pedagogical bases related to problems of the Kazakh language, as well as the collection of the best international experience in language education.

Tasks of the Community:

- Expanding the direction of teaching and studying the Kazakh language as the basis for modernizing public consciousness and national code. Cooperation with higher educational institutions of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the context of studying the problems of teaching the Kazakh language.
- Development of close cooperation with teachers of the Kazakh language in the countries of Central Asia, the Russian Federation, Europe, North America, as well as in China, Japan, Turkey and Korea.
- In order to strengthen ties with teachers of the Kazakh and Turkic languages, the full development of cooperation with professional organizations to improve the quality of teaching of the Turkic languages, in particular the American Association of Teachers of Turkic Languages (AATT), the Turkish Türkçe Öğretim Merkezleri (TÖMER), the Yunus Emre Institute and its branches, etc.
- Systematization of research in the field of Kazakh linguistics, problems of regional studies, teaching and comparative study of languages; Strengthening scientific contacts through participation in international projects, joint research and discussions.
- Collection and dissemination of new methods and innovative technologies in the field of language education, and sharing of experience.
- Organization and holding of annual meetings of the Association.

Strategic directions of the Association for 2018 – 2022 years:

1-Direction	2-Direction	3-Direction	4-Direction
Goal: systematize problems in the teaching of the Kazakh language in the Republic of Kazakhstan & internationally	Goal: systematize scientific works on the Kazakh language in the Republic of Kazakhstan & internationally	Goal: specify directions in the relations of the Kazakh language with the other Turkic languages	Goal: develop the Kazakh language as the basis for modernizing public and national consciousness tasks	tasks	tasks	tasks
1	1	1	1
1) Development of technologies for teaching the Kazakh language: study and familiarization with new pedagogical research in Kazakhstan.	1) Strengthening of relations with higher educational institutions in Kazakhstan: Preparation of a common information fund on international research; Joint scientific and methodological seminars.	1) Development of Cooperation with the International Organization in Kazakhstan "Turkic Academy": preparation of joint projects; Working with the foundation "Turkic Library", studies of interdisciplinary nature (connections with literature, culture, history, economics, politics, etc.)	1) Realization of strategic goals and tasks on the issues of Kazakh writing, literacy and the Latin alphabet. Contribution to the implementation of the state plan for the transition to the Latin script workflow, media, and textbooks and teaching aids.

2) Exchange of experience on the methodology of teaching the Kazakh language according to levels: Preparation of a fund of textbooks and teaching aids, thesaurus, dictionaries with a minimum level lexical; Databases on fiction.	2) Preparation of the base for scientific research on the Kazakh language within the framework of program «Academic Mobility».	2)Comprehensive development of cooperation with professional organizations to improve the quality of teaching of the Turkic languages, in particular with the American Association of Turkic Languages (AATT), the Turkish Türkçe Öğretim Merkezleri (TÖMER), the Yunus Emre Institute and its branches, etc.: Development of scientific projects.	2) Improvement of the relationship of the Kazakh language with literature, history, political science, sociology, philosophy, psychology and cultural study.
3) Studying of international experience in the sphere of language training and second language teaching. Using it in the teaching of the Kazakh language as a second or foreign.	3) Collection and accommodation on the website of information on new scientific directions and specialists in the study of the Kazakh language internationally.	3) Preparation of a list of teaching materials for teaching Turkic languages.	3) Within the framework of the theme "Modern Kazakh culture through the lingua-cultural context", preparation and broadcasting of audio-video materials, multimedia textbooks,

			etc. Communication with publications abroad.
4) Development of methods and technologies for teaching Kazakh language for professional or technical purposes: establishing links with departments for training professional or technical language, sharing experiences, holding joint seminars with the involvement of basic specialists. Systematization of the collection of textbooks and teaching aids published abroad (with explanations in other languages), the necessary academic and scientific literature.	4) Transformation of information on new scientific directions and specialists in the field of studying the Kazakh language abroad.	4) Holding joint seminars and forums within the framework for the realization of the directions for the development and teaching of the Turkic languages	5) Strengthening based on the program «Motherland» the role of interdisciplinary research in the Kazakh language, harmoniously developing the principles of interrelation with geography, history, anthropology, Turkology and literature.
6) As part of the project «The	5) Development of

new humanitarian science. The new 100 textbooks in the Kazakh language» 100 new translated textbooks in the Kazakh language in the humanities / development of modern linguistic capital. Establishment of a close relationship with the National Translation Bureau.	scientific cooperation: preparation of joint projects; Holding international seminars and conferences; Establishing contacts with foreign leaders and principal investigators, preparing a site for bilateral relations (public lectures, consultative seminars).
7) Organizing and strengthening ties with teachers of the Kazakh language in Central Asia, China, Japan, Korea, the Russian Federation, Turkey, Europe, North America, etc.: gathering information and preparing a list of foreign and domestic teachers of the Kazakh language

